Our London office is conveniently situated in the heart of Europe's leading centre of global finance - the City. The building is prominently situated on the west side of Paul Street, midway between the junctions with Bonhill Street and Worship Street. Moorgate, Liverpool Street and Old Street underground and mainline stations are within close walking distance.

Directions

From Liverpool Street station (approximately 7 minutes):
Take the rear exit (by the boutiques) turn right up the stairs and cross Broadgate Circle. Turn left onto Sun Street, then turn right at the 'Flying Horse' public house, onto Wilson Street. Head straight up Wilson Street, which turns into Paul Street. Continue down Paul Street, cross Worship Street, and iomart's offices can be found approximately 30 metres along on the west side of the road before the junction with Bonhill Street.

From Old Street Station (approximately 5 minutes):
Take exit 4, head down City Road and take the 2nd left into Epworth Street, and then take the 2nd right into Paul Street. Cross over Bonhill Street and iomart's office can be found approximately 25 metres down.

Parking
